February 6, 2008

Dear Board Members;

As of the date of this letter, Wintergreen Advisers, LLC (the "Adviser") may be deemed to beneficially own 1,481,474 shares of common stock, $1 par value per share ("Common Stock"), of the Company. The undersigned, David J. Winters, is the Managing Member of the Adviser. The Adviser is the investment adviser to Wintergreen Fund, Inc. (the "Fund"), a registered investment fund, which is the beneficial owner of 564,961 shares of Common Stock (approximately 9.87% of the outstanding shares). The Adviser also serves as investment adviser to private funds, which also own additional shares of Common Stock of the Company (the Fund, the private funds and the Adviser shall be referred to collectively herein as "Wintergreen").

Wintergreen desires to have the Board of Directors (the "Board") of the Company take several actions addressed in the January 21, 2008 letter to the Board (the "Letter"). Wintergreen's principal interest in the Company is its participation through its shares of Common Stock in the creation of shareholder value for Wintergreen and the Company's other shareholders.

The Board has the authority to make the proposed changes without a vote of the shareholders. To the extent permissible, Wintergreen requests that the Board approve any Bylaw changes and take other actions in good faith which would eliminate the need for proposals related to such changes.

The Letter discussed the nomination of three additional directors to the Board of Directors. We now propose for nomination as directors the following three candidates:

MaryAnne Connors Brennan

Dianne M. Neal

Francis G. O'Connor

Full background information on these candidates is provided in Annex A.

The Letter also discussed amending the Bylaws to increase the number of Directors of the Company by an amount sufficient to allow for the inclusion of our three candidates in the proxy for the 2008 Annual Meeting of Shareholders in response to the initiatives proposed by the Adviser to be managed by the Directors. Such initiatives include:

- - align management compensation to the success of the company in achieving its stated goals rather than having the bonus and compensation structure revolve around selling properties out of inventory.
- - review the growth and level of company operating costs; including an analysis of job descriptions and roles in the current market and as company strategy and goals evolve.
- - hire competent outside advisors to develop a strategy to better address the long term goals of the company.
- - hire forensic accountants to review past years' activities to verify that all proper processes and procedures are in place and have been followed to avoid conflicts of interest by any directors, officers and employees; including, but not limited to, a review of all actions in connection with each so called Section 1031 exchange, the direct and indirect costs of each sale of real estate, the profitability of golf operations and a review of the reasonable corporate purpose behind each company travel, dining and entertainment expense.

- - improve public disclosure to clarify what actions have been and are being taken to improve long term shareholder value.
- - review company activities to determine whether or not the appropriate authority and responsibility resides in the company officers and the board of directors.

Actions required for these initiatives require increased size and expertise in the Board of Directors.

Article II, Section 2.1 of the amended Bylaws dated July 25, 2007 state that "the total number of directors constituting the board of directors of the corporation shall be nine." The Bylaws further provide that any increase or decrease in the number of directors requires the "affirmative vote of (a) the holders of at least 85% of the shares of the corporation then entitled to be voting on such change, or (b) two-thirds of the directors then in office."

We urge the Directors to effect an increase in the number of Directors of the Company, in order to ensure that our Board has the resources to pursue changes in strategic focus.

If the Company requires any additional information on the proposed nominees, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Thank you for your consideration.

Please direct any questions regarding the information contained in this correspondence to our legal counsel, Patricia Poglinco ((212) 574-1247), or Fola Adamolekun ((212) 574-1320), of Seward & Kissel LLP, One Battery Park Place, New York, New York 10004.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ David J. Winters

The name and address of the Adviser is Wintergreen Advisers, LLC, 333 Route 46 West, Suite 204, Mountain Lakes, New Jersey 07046. Proposal 1 - Separate CEO & Chairperson

By: Wintergreen Fund, Inc., Wintergreen Partners Fund, LP, and Wintergreen Partners Offshore Fund, Ltd.

RESOLVED: The shareholders of Consolidated-Tomoka Land Company request that the Board of Directors establish a policy of, whenever possible, separating the roles of Chairperson and Chief Executive Officer, so that an independent director who has not served as an executive officer of the Company serves as Chairperson of the Board of Directors.

Supporting Statement

The principle of the separation of the roles of Chairperson and Chief Executive Officer is a basic element of sound corporate governance practice. The primary purpose of the Board of Directors is to protect shareholder's interests by providing independent oversight of management and the CEO. The Board gives strategic direction and guidance to our Company.

Given these different roles and responsibilities, we believe:

- - an independent Board Chairperson - separated from the CEO - is the preferable form of corporate governance.
- - it is the role of the Chief Executive Officer and management to run the business of the company.
- - separating the roles of Chairperson and CEO would result in greater independence and accountability which would allow the company to have greater focus.

The Board will likely accomplish both roles more effectively by separating the roles of Chairperson and CEO. An independent Chairperson will enhance investor confidence in our Company and strengthen the integrity of the Board of Directors.

In order to ensure that our Board can provide the proper strategic direction for our Company with independence and accountability, we urge a vote FOR this resolution.
