No borrowed funds were used to purchase the Shares, other than any borrowed funds used for working capital purposes in the ordinary course of business.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

Advisory clients of Wintergreen are the beneficial owners of approximately 25.9% of the Issuer's common stock. Wintergreen has initiated discussions with the Issuer on maximizing the value of the Daytona properties, through direct development or partnerships. Wintergreen intends to continue its dialogue with, and to take an active interest in, the Issuer to encourage strategic focus on the Volusia county properties. To this end, Wintergreen from time to time, will communicate with the Issuer and other holders of Common Stock regarding such matters.

On April 21, 2008, Wintergreen delivered a letter (the "April 21 Letter") to the Issuer and members of its Board requesting the Issuer postpone the Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Issuer (the "Meeting") scheduled for April 23, 2008. In the April 21 Letter, Wintergreen requested that the Board of the Issuer demonstrate to Wintergreen and other shareholders that the Corporate Governance Committee has properly interviewed and nominated independent director candidates that are truly independent. A copy of the April 21 Letter is attached hereto as Exhibit B and incorporated herein by reference.

Wintergreen may in the future purchase additional Shares or dispose of some or all of such Shares in open-market transactions or privately negotiated transactions. Wintergreen does not currently have any plans or proposals that would result in any of the actions described in paragraphs (b) through (j) of Item 4 of the instructions to Schedule 13D.

Board of Directors
Consolidated-Tomoka Land Co
c/o Linda Crisp, Corporate Secretary
1530 Cornerstone Blvd., Suite 100
Daytona Beach, FL 32117

Dear Board Members:

As of the date of this letter, Wintergreen Advisers, LLC (the "Adviser") may be deemed to beneficially own 1,481,474 shares of common stock, par value $1.00 per share ("Common Stock"), of Consolidated-Tomoka Land Co. (the "Company"), which constitutes 25.9% of the Common Stock. The undersigned, David J. Winters, is the Managing Member and CEO of the Adviser. The Adviser is the investment adviser to Wintergreen Fund, Inc. (the "Fund"), a registered investment company, which is the beneficial owner of 564,961 shares of Common Stock (approximately 9.9% of the outstanding shares). The Adviser also serves as investment adviser to other pooled investment vehicles, which also own additional shares of Common Stock of the Company (the Fund, the other investment vehicles and the Adviser shall be referred to collectively herein as "Wintergreen").

Wintergreen respectfully requests that the Company postpone its Annual Meeting of Shareholders, currently scheduled to take place on April 23, 2008 (the "Meeting"), until at least July 22, 2008 or such time as the Board can demonstrate to Wintergreen and other shareholders that the Corporate Governance Committee has properly interviewed and nominated independent director candidates that are truly independent, to be elected at the 2008 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

In the event the Company does not postpone the Meeting, Wintergreen intends to withhold authority for the shares of Common Stock it beneficially owns to vote for the election of Directors.

Wintergreen takes significant issue with the two independent director nominees to be presented at the Meeting. Wintergreen questions how the Board could reach a determination that William L. Olivari and William H. Davison are independent in accordance with the Listing Standards of The American Stock Exchange, which require that in order for a director to qualify as independent, the board must affirmatively determine that the director does not have a relationship that would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment in carrying out the responsibilities of a director.

It has come to Wintergreen's attention that in 2003, the Company sold a significant parcel of land (the "Property") on the west side of Daytona Beach to Halifax Health System ("Halifax") for $15.5 million, one of the largest transactions in the Company's history. As part of the purchase arrangement, the Company retained the right to reacquire the Property at the original sale price in the event Halifax did not begin construction on one of two medical or hospital buildings on the Property by December 2005. Halifax did not begin construction on the first building by December 2005. According to public statements by Halifax officials, the Hospital has no present intention of breaking ground on a medical or hospital facility at the site in the foreseeable future. To Wintergreen's knowledge, the Company did not demand that construction begin until December 2007, which demand caused the Company's right to repurchase to vest in December 2008. Accordingly, the Company has taken limited action to enforce its rights. Mr. Olivari has significant ties to Halifax and in fact currently serves as the chairperson of the board of Halifax's foundation and has served on that board for the last two years. Wintergreen believes that Mr.

Olivari has a conflict of interest related to the Company's enforcement of its rights. Mr. Olivari's connection to Halifax has not been disclosed in the Company's Proxy Statement.

In addition, Mr. William H. Davison, a director of the Company who is up for re-election at the Meeting, served as Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of SunTrust Bank ("SunTrust"), East Central Florida, until his retirement in September 2007. As disclosed in the Company's Proxy Statement, the Company and SunTrust are parties to a Master Loan and Security Agreement pursuant to which SunTrust has provided the Company with a term loan in the amount of $8 million and an unsecured line of credit in the maximum amount of $20 million. The Company and SunTrust are also parties to an International Swap Dealers Association, Inc. Master Agreement with respect to an interest rate swap in connection with the term loan described above.

The Company, however, did not contemporaneously disclose in any Proxy Statement or any of its other public filings a 2004 agreement with SunTrust Bank pursuant to which SunTrust purchased a site in Daytona Beach from one of the Company's subsidiaries for the purpose of constructing a regional banking facility. It also failed contemporaneously to disclose a covenant in that agreement that obligated SunTrust to begin construction on the site by December 2006, or otherwise to permit the Company to repurchase the property at the original purchase price of $1.43 million, without penalty to SunTrust. Thereafter, SunTrust did not begin construction by 2006 and the Company, likewise without advance disclosure to shareholders, repurchased the property for $1.43 million.

While certain of the related party transactions between SunTrust and the Company have been disclosed in the Proxy Statement, the Company's failure to disclose the purchase transactions involving the Company and Halifax and SunTrust, respectively, begs the question of whether there are other material transactions the Company may have failed to disclose to its shareholders. The transactions described above also bring into question the process by which the Board determines the independence of the Company's directors.

Within the last twelve months, Wintergreen has brought four director candidates to the attention of the Company. As the Proxy Statement indicates, one of the candidates was rejected due to meeting schedule conflicts. Wintergreen finds the rejection of an otherwise qualified candidate on these grounds to be unacceptable. Even more problematic is the fact that the Corporate Governance Committee never contacted the other three candidates, despite the fact that there is currently a vacancy on the Board.

The Board's seemingly lax director independence determination standards and the Corporate Governance Committee's refusal to seriously consider qualified candidates for directorships that Wintergreen has brought to their attention points to what Wintergreen believes are inadequate corporate governance practices of the Company. Wintergreen has pointed these issues out in the past, and intends to continue to monitor them.

As we have communicated in our prior correspondence to you and in our meetings with management, Wintergreen's sole interest in the Company is its participation through its shares of Common Stock in the creation of shareholder value for Wintergreen and the Company's other shareholders. Wintergreen has proposed a number of initiatives for consideration by the Company and/or its shareholders in order to re-focus the Company's business operations and demonstrate to shareholders that management is acting in the best interest of all shareholders. To date, management of the Company has not shown Wintergreen that it shares the goal of the creation of shareholder value.

Please direct any questions regarding the information contained in this correspondence to our legal counsel, Patricia Poglinco ((212) 574-1247), or Fola Adamolekun ((212) 574-1320), of Seward & Kissel LLP, One Battery Park Plaza, New York, New York 10004, or to our special Florida counsel, Ronald Albert, Jr. ((305) 373-9474) of Broad and Cassel, One Biscayne Tower, 2 South Biscayne Boulevard, Miami, Florida 33131.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ David J. Winters
